SABBATH DAY

BUCKET LIST

- [ ] Locate all the temples on a world map and mark them with pins.
- [ ] Write thank you notes to those who spoke in church.
- [ ] Secretly decorate someone's front door with notes of appreciation.
- [ ] Take a Sunday walk.
- [ ] Have a Book of Mormon read-a-thon.
- [ ] Make cookies and write a note to someone in your ward, telling them what you admire about them.
- [ ] Create an "I'm Grateful For…" list or poster.
- [ ] Write a family newsletter and email it to extended family members.
- [ ] Create a gospel quote book.
- [ ] Write a giant letter to the missionaries from your family on a large piece of butcher paper.
- [ ] Have a family object lesson contest. Have everyone pick one or two items around the house and come up with a story about how that item can illustrate a gospel principle.
- [ ] Make phone calls to loved ones to let them know you're thinking of them.
- [ ] Study your family history and act out a story.
- [ ] Find gospel quotes to share on social media.
- [ ] Create a family motto and display it in your home.
- [ ] Look through family photo albums.
- [ ] Choose an article of faith to memorize.
- [ ] Invite a family in the ward you would like to know better to your home for a family fireside.
- [ ] Draw and deliver pictures to elderly people in your neighborhood.
- [ ] Create a food storage plan.

Each Sunday choose an activity to do with your family. Check off the activity once you've completed it.
