

Sometimes it's easy to lose the true meaning of Christmas in the excitement over twinkling lights and holiday dinners. But Christmas is all about honoring Jesus Christ. Use this calendar whenever you need to remember the true reason for celebrating. If you miss a day, don't worry! Serve when and who you can. And remember that you can #LightTheWorld all year round—every day is an opportunity to be a little more like Jesus.

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

01

The next time you receive a text today, tell the person who sent it something you appreciate about them.

02

Think of someone who is an example of Christlike service. Highlight their example on social media.

03

Donate blood today. Your selfless service can save a life.

04

Which one of your classmates or co-workers do you know the least? Eat lunch with someone new at school or work.

05

Offer a prayer of gratitude for Jesus Christ and His mercy.

06

Find a way to help someone in need by making a small donation. Consider the list of Giving Machines charity partners at LightTheWorld.org.

07

Think of your family members. Offer to clean their room, or perform some other act of service.

08

Share a scripture with a friend or a loved one who may need a boost today.

09

Think of a close friend or family member. Invite them to do an ornament swap, so you have something to represent each other in your respective homes.

10

Cheer someone on! Make plans to attend an event (holiday, athletic, cultural, etc.) to support someone you know.

11

Call your parents right now and tell them how much you love them.

12

Interpret how you feel about Jesus Christ by creating art, a song, a poem, or some other creative outlet, and share it with a friend or loved one.

13

Write an anonymous "thank you" to your boss, teacher, or leader and let them know what they do well.

14

Plan a one-on-one activity with a friend, a child, or a loved one.

15

Invite someone to attend a Christmas worship service with you next Sunday.

16

Learn about one of your ancestors and share their story. Need help? Visit FamilySearch.org.

17

Take a vow of positivity today. Greet everyone you see with a smile.

18

Think of someone for whom you've had negative feelings lately. Try praying for them.

19

Make a list of all the things a mentor or teacher has done for you. Send it to them with a note of thanks.

20

Visit a small business and meet the owner. Consider, if appropriate, leaving them a positive review online.

21

Think of a single parent you know. Invite their child/children over so the parent can have some time to do Christmas preparations, or other errands.

22

Ask God how you can be an answer to someone else's prayer today.

23

Think of a neighbor you don't know very well. Bring them some homemade goodies or a thoughtful gift.

24

Deliver a "reverse wish list" to a parent. Write down all the wonderful, meaningful things they've provided you with throughout your life.

25

Merry Christmas! Think of all the things the Savior Jesus Christ has done for you, and share some of them on social media.

26

Turn the challenge to Light the World one by one every day into a New Year's resolution.

Want a daily reminder sent to your mobile phone? Sign up for text prompts at LightTheWorld.org.