

Family History Learning and Research Made Easy

Intro | FamilySearch | Ancestry | MyHeritage | Findmypast | Train | Activities | Blog/Social | LDS | Countries | Vault | Tracker | Misc.

Introduction

- About The Family History Guide: FAQ's, Get Started, 15-Min. Approach, Features Help, etc.
- For Beginners: Computer basics and family history basics, with links to articles and videos
- Topics and Site Map: Browse content for The Family History Guide alphabetically, by category.
- Search and Translate: Use Search to find content quickly, or Google Translate for other languages.

Partners

Follow Goals, Choices, and Steps to learn leading family history platforms: FamilySearch, Ancestry, MyHeritage, and Findmypast.

Sample Projects are Family Tree, Memories, Research, Help, and Technology

Faiths

- Find resources for family history for Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, and Latter-day Saint users.
- A Come Follow Me Family History Companion is included for Latter-day Saints.

Training

- Get tips for training families, groups, individuals, youth, beginners, and children.
- Explore the Course Catalog, using flexible classes designed from the website.
- Access free guides for presenting The Family History Guide website to others.

- Get tips for instructor preparation & teaching.
- Learn how to become a Certified Trainer.

Activities

- Find and use great family history activities for families, individuals, youth, & children.

Blog / Social Media

- Blog: <http://www.thefhguide.com/blog>
- Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/TheFamilyHistoryGuide/>
- YouTube: The Family History Guide Channel
- Twitter: <https://twitter.com/thefhguide>
- Pinterest: <https://pinterest.com/thefamilyhistoryguide>

Countries

- Find research pages for 50 countries, 50 U.S. states, 36 English counties, 10 Canadian provinces, and 6 Australian states.
- Use QUIKLinks to find records in a flash.

More

- Vault: Find links to hundreds of additional articles and videos on family history topics.
- Tracker: Monitor your progress with an online database or editable Word files. Reporting features available in the Online Tracker.
- Misc. Menu: Features Help, What's New, Quotes, Events, Contact Us, etc.